Fun and Adventure in RoCo

Recreational Nirvana awaits on Rockingham County's Rivers, Lakes and Trails

By Joe Dexter

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY

The ultimate adventure awaits in Rockingham County, a unique treasure map of recreation, that any outdoor enthusiast could dream of.

From rivers, to lakes, diverse trails and natural landscapes — it's here in RoCo — where visitors and residents alike can discover an outdoor oasis.

With experiences chucked full of nature's serenity, exploration, and an entertainment factor worth more than gold.

Are you looking for a roadmap to fun and adventure in Rockingham County?

Here are several guides and tips to Rock the RoCo, thanks to the hard work of the Rockingham County Center for Economic Development, Small Business, and Tourism.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY BLUEWAYS

Every epic adventure starts with an impeccable roadmap. For future paddlers and veteran water carvers alike, the journey starts with accessibility to 15 sections of public water paths within the Dan, Smith, Mayo and Haw Rivers.

And while these river entries create opportunities, it's Rockingham County's Blueway guide that serves as a compass for those ready to arc their paddle or direct their oar, on more than 85 miles of river access.

The RoCo Blueway Guide is the ultimate treasure map to fun and adventure on Rockingham County's four rivers and three lakes. To download the roadmap to your next journey on the water, head to: visitrockinghamcountync.com

The Rock the RoCo guide provides river tips and safety measures for first timers and contact information for local outfitters who can provide guided trips and/or rental equipment.

The directory is broken down into color-coded page-by-page travelable section guides of the regions' rivers and lakes. It displays the features of each travel section, skill level requirements, a detailed map of the float path, GPS coordinates, and map identifiers of put in and take out locations.

Each section is also labeled with trip duration information, as well as expected paddle and floating times for each designated trip.

Water fun isn't just limited to kayaking and canoe ventures on our beautiful waterways.

Kick back, relax and bask in the sun – as you enjoy a lazy river tubing adventure with family and friends, on the Dan River and beyond.

Or wake up at the break of dawn to catch the sun's orange hue at Belews Lake, Lake Reidsville and Lake Hunt. Launch your bass boat into an Angler's paradise, as all three bodies of water hold a healthy bass, crappie and bream population.

Looking instead for pure family fun?

Spend a weekend camping, boating, water skiing, bird watching and picnicking at one of Rockingham County's premiere recreation hubs.

Or head on over to Stokesdale, and enjoy swimming, tubing, paddling, boating, and jet-skiing on Belews Lake. Choices are endless on the RoCo Blueway, the perfect getaway for any adventurer who loves being on the water. And the RoCo Blueway Guide is the quintessential tool to help you navigate your next adventure, needed rental equipment, and local accommodations.

YEAR OF THE TRAIL

This year, Rockingham County is highlighting Rockingham County's great walking, running, and biking assets, by joining in on a statewide initiative to designate 2023 as the Year of the Trail.

Nearly 600 square miles make up Rockingham County's terrain, and its 25 public trails accent its beautiful landscape. Intertwined in that beauty, is a diverse set of walking, biking and running paths, with uses for every individual.

In Mayodan, cyclists from near and far are graced with the top-rated mountain bike trail at Farris Park.

The 3.3-mile trail, rated four stars on mtbproject.com, provides natural cuts, challenging berms, snake-like curves, and blazing fast lap times.

The racecourse has grown significantly since its inception in 2016, with regional circuits such as Greensboro-based Racing in the Woods, adding the course to its seasonal series schedules.

Since 2018, hundreds of student athletes have made their way to Farris Park to take part in the North Carolina Interscholastic Cycling League State Championships, held annually in May.

North Carolina has declared 2023 as the Year of the Trail and Rockingham County has a robust selection of recreational pathways to discover, with over 25 different public trails spread across the county.

Enjoy your opportunity to #GoWithTheRoCoFlow by visiting this diverse set of walking paths!

With courses in Climax, Wilkesboro, Salisbury and Elizabethtown on the Schedule, the peak youth development cycling program for 6th-12th grade students will make its way to Farris Memorial on April 30 and May 21, for the season finale. 62 registered various high school, middle school and composite teams from all areas of the state are already registered for both events.

Located in Mayodan NC 30 miles northwest of Greensboro, Mayo River State Park offers various recreational opportunities at the main Mayo Mountain access and at multiple accesses along the Mayo River. At the main access, visitors can enjoy hiking trails, fishing ponds, a picnic area and shelter, and a group campsite. Four accesses — Deshazo Mill, Anglin Mill, Hickory Creek, and Mayodan — allow entry to the river, home to rich wildlife and Class II rapids. Deshazo Mill also features a picturesque waterfall on Fall Creek.

The Madison River Park is located at the Dan River on Lindsey Bridge Road in Madison, N.C. The Dan River, known as the “Lazy River” is well suited for paddlers of all skill levels and is considered one of the best places to learn to paddle in North Carolina. The Dan allows you to float away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life and enjoy its relaxing pace, beautiful scenery, and historical significance.

The Dan is free flowing with few modern improvements and its waters are plentiful enough that visitors can still canoe, tube or kayak during times of drought. Thanks to the Town of Madison and several state agencies an old dam that was having several structure issues was removed and a beautiful river park was created complete with seven small rapids that are great for fishing, kayaking, tubing are just sitting back and enjoying the scenery. Historic place cards provide context to the grounds that played a key role during the American Revolution.

So many other trails such as the Knight Nature Preserve and Hogans’ Creek Park in Madison, Stoneville Downtown Connector Trail, Farris Park Bike Trail are also prime examples of the different ways visitors and residents alike can discover their own trail.

Love, Kindness and Apparel

Salem and Charlie Boutique fills the heart of Downtown Madison

By Joe Dexter

MADISON

In the heart of downtown, Salem and Charlie Boutique is filled with love, kindness and an unbelievable selection of women's apparel, clothes, handbags, candles, jewelry and home décor.

Guests of the warm and colorful storefront are with beautiful dresses, bracelets, earrings, purses, handbags, and the ever-so-popular Simply Southern brand wear.

For store owner Marla Nelson, a trip to Salem and Charlie is an opportunity to help visitors feel worthy and loved on.

"Of course, they come in here to shop," said Nelson, who purchased the location formerly known as PBJ's Boutique in 2019. "But, We always want to be good to other people. We just want them to know that God loves them. If we give God the glory, we will be able to keep the doors open."

At Salem and Charlie, a selection of home accent pieces and Christian inspirational gifts fill the shelves, as do so many quality selections.

But what really stands out is woven in the fabric of Salem and Charlie.

It lives within the boutique's wonderful and unique identity.

"It has been phenomenal," said Nelson, who spent more than 20 years as an educator at Stoneville Elementary.

The lifelong Stoneville resident saw her service to students come to an end, after her daughter Salem suffered a multifocal stroke at the age of 18 – just days before her high school graduation.

Nelson took two years leave from education to be alongside Salem on every step on the road to recovery.

At a crossroads following leave, the former kindergarten and pre-k special needs instructor had to make the decision to either return to the classroom or find a new career path.

She chose retail and an opportunity to be alongside her daughter every single day.

"It was a literal God thing, it was perfect timing," said

Nelson, on the acquisition of PBJ's from longtime owner Penny Jones. "I was able to make a living and have her with me. It was bittersweet.

After buying the business, Nelson changed the name to Salem and Charlie – after her daughter and her jubilant service dog Charlie.

Today, a beautiful picture of the duo adorns the back wall behind the boutique's register.

It serves as a symbol of the love and kindness living inside the Murphy Street store that welcomes guests from near and far.

A customer base that has only grown Nelson's love for the community.

Shortly after opening, Salem and Charlie saw continued growth amongst the start of the COVID pandemic.

Customers supported through purchasing items on live broadcasts. Individuals even committed to future purchases by buying gift cards to use for future purchases, once the store re-opened.

"Coming from education, I had to learn a lot about retail," said Nelson. "This whole community, the chamber, the merchant's guild, the people — they have welcomed us and supported us.

"Everyone is kind and we look out for each other," said Nelson, while praising the downtown district in Madison. "We try to send customers to each other and support the brewery, wineries, and restaurants.

"This is a place that very much supports small local business."

Since opening the store, the mother-daughter relationship between Marla and Salem has only grown.

"It's been phenomenal," said Nelson, "She was going to go to Liberty University to be a nurse. Of course, we had all her dorm stuff, and that was hard, but we got through it.

"When you are young like that and something happens, you feel like you're robbed of your future," said Nelson "The store is named after her and Charlie and she didn't want that to be her sole identity."

She noted that it's not always easy working with your parents and that she is beyond proud of Salem, who is forging her own path.

Yet, the power of love through adversity, in God's name, will always live in the ethos of Salem and Charlie Boutique.

It continues to motivate Marla Nelson, as she serves the Western Rockingham Community and beyond, at the beautiful little Madison boutique, across from the Mad Bean parking lot.

"She's my baby," said Nelson, holding back tears as she discussed the impact her daughter has on her day after day.

"Everything I do, I do it for her."

As for Salem and Charlie, Nelson hopes the store is still serving the community 20 years from now.

"We are very much followers of Jesus," Nelson said. "We want to be bold about sharing our faith. It's the reason we are here. We give God the glory and he's provided for us."

Salem and Charlie Boutique is located at 108 E. Murphy Street in downtown Madison and is open from 10 AM to 5 PM Tuesday Through Friday and from 9 AM to 4 PM on Saturdays.

By Joe Dexter

WESTERN ROCKINGHAM

Longstanding business success is engrained in the history of Western Rockingham County and this year, several local businesses are celebrating key milestones. Their impact has been felt by residents over several decades, making a lasting impression on the community.

PERRY-SPENCER FUNERAL HOME

Celebrating 70 years

Since 1953, Perry-Spencer Funeral Home has served the community of Madison with Honesty, Dignity and Affordable services.

The family-owned funeral home, located on Short Avenue, was established in May of that year, by Lee S. Perry Sr., Mary E. Perry, Katherine Perry, as well as Harris and Catherine Spencer.

“We came up here because there wasn’t a black funeral home on this side of the county,” said CEO Lee Perry Jr, who was named President and CEO in 1996. “Everything was in Reidsville, where my father (Lee Perry Sr.) was born.”

From the start, Perry-Spencer established itself as an icon in funeral service here in Rockingham County and in surrounding areas.

Sixty years ago, Perry-Spencer of Eden was also opened by management to provide service and convenience to that portion of the county.

While excelling in professional services, Perry-Spencer Funeral Home also offers burial insurance, pre-arrangements of funeral and monuments, as well as cremation services.

Perry said it means a lot to Perry-Spencer Funeral home to be able to serve Western Rockingham and surrounding communities.

“We’ve made a lot of friends that are always willing to help,” Perry Jr. said. “My father always surrounded himself with good people and that’s how we’ve been able to help several different communities in our region.”

HOLLAND & ASSOCIATES REALTY Celebrating 39 Years

For nearly 40 years, Holland & Associates in Eden has provided personalized attention to clients and customers, by servicing real estate needs throughout Rockingham County.

The five-agent team is led by community leader Jerry Holland, who took over his mother Martha H. Holland's firm, following her retirement in July of 2013.

Martha H. Holland, one of Rockingham County's first female real estate agents, was also the first female president of the Rockingham County Board of Realtors.

Jerry Holland, who left his construction business to run Holland & Associates, has enjoyed serving the area over the last 10 years.

“I was looking for a change personally, so I decided to try this,” Holland said. “I told myself I'm going to work as hard as I can for three years and see what happens and if I'm not happy, I'm not going to do it. I'm going to lock the door.”

“But it's been a good niche for me and a great opportunity.”

A staple in the Eden community, Holland & Associates Realty specializes in residential real estate sales and listings, lots, land and acreages sales and listings, commercial property sales and listings and rental property management.

“It's an enjoyable process,” said Holland, a lifelong Eden resident, dedicated to community involvement and providing support.

“You get to meet a lot of people,” Holland said. “I've met people from all over the United States that I've sold homes to. From California, to New York, New Jersey, Florida, Texas and Arizona — I just can't tell you how many people are moving to Rockingham County. It's awesome and it puts a new flavor on business.”

Holland, who serves on several community boards, works in tandem with a great team of real estate agents, including his wife Rhonda, who has been a real estate broker for 35 years.

Property Manager Rita Smith also helps the company manage its 185 rental units. Holland said that as an agent alone, he has averaged between 45 and 50 transactions annually over the last few years.

The hometown real estate team brings unparalleled industry knowledge, experience and local expertise to every single client looking for real estate assistance.

Where Empowerment Begins Help Incorporated, Associated Agencies put Abuse Survivors first with the opening of SquareOne Family Justice Center

By Joe Dexter

WENTWORTH

It started as a goal in 2016 to bring the community a single location and united response for victims of domestic and sexual violence.

Now, thanks to the continuous efforts of local non-profit Help Incorporated to limit survivor trauma, clients will be served more efficiently and effectively.

Rockingham County celebrates the grand opening of SquareOne Family Justice Center this spring, a 10,000-square foot facility that takes burden off victims of family violence, by providing coordinated services to victims.

For the first time under the same roof, victims of domestic violence, child abuse, elder abuse, sexual assault and human trafficking, can begin the healing process under one roof.

The new facility allows professionals from different agencies to work together under an integrated model, to provide safety, legal, social and health services.

While Help Incorporated continues to provide advocacy, crisis intervention, shelter and therapy, tremendous community partnerships will also help lift burden from abuse victims, who routinely face complex systems on the road to healing.

Officials with supporting agencies showed support to the Family Justice Center model from the get-go, while understanding that creating the most effective support starts with multi-agency support.

Partners include the district attorney's office, clerk's office, health and human services, department of social services, district court judges, probation/department of corrections, health providers, Rockingham County Partnership for Children, county youth services, private attorneys and many other agencies.

The safe haven, located at 317 Cherokee Camp Road in Wentworth, is constructed on land donated to Help Incorporated by the Rockingham County Government, by way of the Board of Commissioners.

It features a residential wing, three residential suites and many other safe spaces to provide comforts and necessities of everyday life.

Office spaces for organizations such as the District Attorney's Office and Department of Social Services allow for meetings and evaluations within one centralized location.

The co-located service model helps erase the complex systems that tend to fall on the victim's shoulders, despite the fear, anxiety and heartbreak they face after trauma.

Now, thanks to resources provided by the FJC, local children impacted by abuse no longer are required to travel to Brenner's Children's Hospital in Winston-Salem for evaluation.

As part of the multi-agency system, an in-house pediatrician has been added to the FJC team.

Help Incorporated Executive Director Angie Boles is proud of how hard partners worked throughout the last seven years to provide new resources and enhance others in order to improve the lives of adult and child victims.

"I always say that the stars aligned for us and our team, but all the partners worked extremely hard and I'm very proud of the way we faced barriers," said Boles, who has served as advocate for survivors since 1991.

Boles knows that with several different agencies working together under different disciplines, there will always be challenges to overcome.

Yet, when similar challenging moments arose on the road to opening SquareOne Family Justice Center, discussions always revolve around a unified will to find a way.

"It's a never give up attitude that this team has had from the get-go, that's what I'm proud of" said Boles, who began at Help Incorporated as a Shelter Director in 1994.

Boles added that divine intervention also played a role during the arduous process of building Square One FJC.

"Our Team mantra revolved around knowing that if we are doing it for the right reasons, it will happen," said Boles, who has led the Help Incorporated team for the last 19 years.

"We know that we have to keep our goal survivor focused, because they are our only reason for being."

To learn more about the SquareOne Family Justice Center, visit: <https://www.squareonefjc.org/>

From July 2021 to June of 2022, Help Incorporated received 878 Domestic Violence crisis line calls and served over 1,750 clients, according to data gathered by the NC Council For Woman and Youth Involvement.

During the same time period, Help Incorporated received 248 sexual assault based calls on the crisis line, and served over 490 clients.

Help Incorporated is dedicated to providing services to victims of violence, while working together with community partners to improve lives of adult and child victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence and human trafficking.

Platinum Service, Platinum Results

Local Pressure Washing Company offers top rated services in Greensboro Region

By Joe Dexter

MADISON

It all started in 2019, as a passion for cleaning exteriors and a desire to do more than just drive trucks for the rest of his life.

For Platinum Power Wash Owner Justin Willard, the journey began with a goal to provide premium service to Rockingham County and the surrounding Triad.

What started as a passion-filled objective, has now transformed into a top-rated pressure washing company within the Greensboro region.

Offering pressure washing, house washing, roof cleaning, paver sealing, commercial washing and many other services to boost curb appeal, Platinum Power Wash has all the tools to restore your property back to new.

Last year alone, the company serviced nearly 400 homes in the area, while assisting several corporate clients across the state and around the country.

During a four-week span in August, Willard's team cleaned over 225,000 square feet of surface at various complexes and residential homes.

From the 14,400 seat Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum, home of the Wake Forest Demon Deacons, to the many distinguishable buildings in our hometowns and beyond – deserved growth has come naturally to the Madison-based company.

“We put a lot of focus on commercial jobs last year and our goal is to do more of that, but our sight will always be focused on where we came from,” said Willard, whose company holds an A+ grade with the Better Business Bureau.

“Commercial is a big ticket, but we will never forget about our residential customers, because they got us to where we are at,” Willard said.

The entrepreneur has seen tremendous growth in the company, since launching in 2019.

In just two years, Willard quit his full-time job, as a measure to fully meet his customer’s needs.

With a concentrated effort on growth, he began focusing on company growth, perfecting company processes and building a strong culture.

Today, Platinum Power Wash boasts five team members, who exude the professionalism ingrained in Platinum’s identity as a trusted power washing team.

“I don’t refer to them as employees because we are all in this together,” said Willard, who believes expansion and growth directly correlates with how clientele is treated.

“Expanding is all about the customer’s journey,” said Willard. “What does the customer receive when they call Platinum? What is the quality level of service from the time they call, to the time we are finished with the job?”

“If you’re always working on customer experience, expanding will never be a problem, because you are always working to separate yourself from somebody else.”

Platinum Power Wash offers house washing warranties, five-year roof cleaning warranties, and guarantees 100% satisfaction.

The team focuses on soft washing surfaces, to prevent risk of property damage and to provide the best cleaning possible.

Using low-powered jets and eco-friendly detergent, Platinum Power Wash never exceeds 80 PSI to remove dirt, moss and grime.

“In this industry you can mess a lot of things up and I believe continuously educating yourself on your craft is the main key,” said Willard.

Willard said the biggest product factor that Platinum Power Wash provides is from its dedication to soft wash technology and roof cleaning.

“A lot of people don’t know that their roof can be cleaned, because they confuse dirt and grime for needing a whole new roof, and that’s not the case at all,” said Willard.

“We can’t add life to that roof but we can allow you to get more out of it,” said Willard, who has witnessed individuals replace their roof after 15 years, just because they confused dirt with damage.

“With a simple washing, you can get 15 to 20 more years out of that roof,” Willard said.

For the Platinum Power Wash teams, it’s about providing all the intricacies of a full service clean.

“It’s about time. The homeowner can be doing something else with their family, versus spending all weekend washing their house,” said Willard, pointing to safety as another key reason why hiring professional services better serves the homeowner.

“A big thing to us is safe cleaning and everything we are able to do can be done from the ground and not ladders,” Willard said.

“I’ve heard horror stories of people falling off ladders and breaking their ankles and legs because they were trying to reach high spots,” he added. “That ankle or leg break could cost you thousands of dollars and missed time at work. For far less, you could hire someone to do it professionally.”

As for Platinum Power Wash, the aim continues forward in 2023, with continued focus on expansion.

“I think as a business owner and entrepreneur, you’re never going to be satisfied with what you’ve done or what you’ve got and that’s okay,” said Willard. “It means that you’re continuing to grow. If you ever get content where you are, complacency sets in

“That is when you will fail, because you’ve got to stay uncomfortable.”

Questions & Answers

By Joe Dexter

WESTERN ROCKINGHAM

Gini Cardwell

NC FARM BUREAU INSURANCE AGENT | 336-453-5020 | GINI.CARDWELL@NCFBINS.COM

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO PROVIDE INSURANCE SERVICES IN YOUR HOMETOWN COMMUNITY?

It's personal for me. These are my people — the people that I have grown up around. It's not a sale, it's more than that. It's ensuring that the people I know and care about are protected in a way that I would protect my own family.

Why is it important to you to serve the community through volunteering, serving on important boards and connecting individuals who care about Western Rockingham? I think it is our only way for growth. We are a small community and for us to survive and thrive, we need to have that interjection back into the community.

I feel like it's something that has been lost and we have to find it again. We must continue to put our time into our community, in order to see it thrive and grow for the next generation.

AS A COMMUNITY LEADER, WHY IS WESTERN ROCKINGHAM A SPECIAL PLACE TO LIVE AND WORK?

I'm emotionally invested in Western Rockingham because it's where I grew up. It's where I moved back to after college. It's where I choose to raise my family. It's where I have my business. It's where my people are. However, more than that, when I tell anybody what makes Western Rockingham County special, is that we are a family.

I love going into a small-town restaurant and them knowing you by name. I love being in a grocery store and somebody asking you how your mama's been because they know she had surgery.

I love the sense of community that has been built here. Everyone is looking out for each other and there is such a strong sense of pride and belonging when referencing Western Rockingham County.

WHAT GROWTH HAVE YOU SEEN AND HOW DO YOU ANTICIPATE IT IMPACTING OUR COMMUNITY?

We have revitalized downtown Madison and I think that is great. The Town of Mayodan in general has a lot of progressive ideas coming from their board, which is wonderful. I see an influx of people moving to this area. People are taking into consideration that you can get a lot more house, for a lot less money, once you cross the county line.

All of those things are wonderful, and we are only going to see a continued increase in growth, as Guilford County, Stokesdale, Oak Ridge and Summerfield continue to expand and merge this way, thanks to U.S. Interstate 73 opening.

On the flip side of that, I think we need to double down on ensuring that people who are 20 minutes from Madison or 35 minutes from Greensboro, choose to come to the western side of the county and enjoy the life we have to offer.

Trey Duncan

FUNERAL DIRECTOR | COLONIAL FUNERAL HOME

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO SERVE WESTERN ROCKINGHAM COUNTY?

It's a great honor and privilege to serve our community.

I am committed to providing our community with the comfort and strength to help them move forward with the utmost respect and honor that each family deserves.

My commitment to those ideals comes from being part of a strong and close family.

From a young age, I was taught those core values in life, and the importance of having a servant's heart was also instilled in me.

AS A LEADER, WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ASPECT OF LEADERSHIP?

It's important for the families that we serve daily to know that we are a family serving their family. In other words, I want every family that walks in our doors to know that our team, as a whole, wants to insert ourselves into that family, whether it means we cry with them or even laugh with them. They should feel like they can approach our staff with any request that makes the most difficult time easier for them. It's important that in funeral service we create a "servants' heart" atmosphere.

Christy Locklear

REAL ESTATE AGENT, A NEW DAWN REALTY | 336-420-0558 | CHRISTYLOCKLEARREALTOR@GMAIL.COM

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE ABLE TO PROVIDE REAL ESTATE SERVICES TO THE WESTERN ROCKINGHAM COMMUNITY AND ROCKINGHAM COUNTY AS A WHOLE?

I absolutely love working in Rockingham County!

I was born and raised in the area and I feel like I know our county like the back of my hand. My mom was a school bus driver all through my school years and my dad and I were active softball players, so I can assure you there are not many areas in the county that I have not seen.

I love sharing that knowledge of the area with my clients. I also love making the connection of how we may know each other, know mutual people... or sometimes even figuring out that we may be related.

It's my passion to see people I grew up with or my kids grew up with become homeowners. It means so much for them to trust me to help them with such a big life event!

AS A REAL ESTATE AGENT, WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO YOU TO SERVE THE PEOPLE OF OUR COMMUNITY AND PROVIDE THEM WITH THE BEST SERVICE?

I believe that homeownership is the wisest investment that anyone can make. Therefore, I want to see everyone achieve that goal to better their future.

I try my best to do most of my business by referrals and generosity. In order to do business by referrals, I need to deliver top notch service to my clients while also building a lasting friendship. This helps ensure that they recommend me to their friends and family. "Gifts" are definitely my love language. I look at my clients as people and not transactions. Nothing brings me more joy than to brighten someone's day.

I enjoy popping by my client's homes to drop off little goodies or just sending them a message to check on them or cheer them up. I am not just your agent for 30 or 60 days. I am your lifetime real estate agent and most importantly your new friend.

WHAT MAKES WESTERN ROCKINGHAM COUNTY A SPECIAL PLACE TO LIVE?

The people. We are a down-to-earth tight knit community. I have watched our community on many instances over the years rally together to help others in their time of need or support.

There is nothing better than walking into one of our restaurants or stores and seeing eager, smiling faces greeting you, ready to serve.

WHAT GROWTH HAVE YOU SEEN OVER THE LAST FEW YEARS AS FAR AS HOUSING DEVELOPMENT AND CUSTOMER INTEREST FROM HOMEOWNERS CONSIDERING MADISON, MAYODAN, STONEVILLE AND THE SURROUNDING AREA?

The growth in the Western Rockingham County housing development has been tremendous.

There are people moving from all over, looking to live in a small town, seeking that "country" environment.

The growth in our surrounding counties is sending folks our way, seeking more land and privacy.

With so many new businesses moving into our area, as well as new attractions such as the new river front park, people are discovering what we all love about this area.

They want to be a part of it.

George Knight

OWNER, CLOCK TOWER HERALD

WHY IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO BE CONNECTED TO THE COMMUNITY?

I grew up going to Halloween festivities in downtown Madison. My family has been in the area, dating back to 1755.

I try to be involved as much as possible. I ran the Clocktower Herald until October and I still have plans to reopen it eventually.

I look at my grandpa (Thomas McCollum Jr.) as an inspiration. He was so involved in the community.

SEEING MADISON'S GROWTH DOWNTOWN, WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO YOU AND WHAT DO YOU EXPECT IN THE FUTURE?

I've noticed that we've had to compete with Greensboro and Winston-Salem, as far as, we have niche businesses that people want to come see from those areas.

I feel like, although we had to compete with them because they are bigger urban centers, our growth is more authentic.

Our shop owners are truly local. Money spent in those businesses goes right back into the community.

I really do think that the community is taking a turn for the better. Not to say it hasn't always been good, but there are more stores and more options for food and drinks.

It's already prosperous but I see even more potential coming.

WHY IS COMMUNITY AND INPUT SO IMPORTANT?

If you don't provide local officials with input, then how will they know what problems exist? People need to go to local government meetings, because very important community issues and topics are discussed that are very relevant and important to community members.
